Dear Ms. Schellhammer

Please find our Open Records Request, attached, along with the City of Altoona's standardized RTK request form. In case of any discrepancy, "Latker-Holsey RTK.pdf" shall serve as the official and definitive request under the law, and the basis of any appeal to the Office of Open Records.

The requesters are sensitive to the time and resource constraints faced by your office. Requesters can be flexible on deadlines as long as there is a good-faith search for responsive records.

With thanks and regards,
Richard Latker

Dear Ms. Schllhammer:

Your office has failed to respond to our lawful open records request within five business days.

We will provide an additional day's grace on Monday, and will proceed to the office of Open Records on appeal on the morning of Tuesday July 11.

We will hold your office strictly accountable for costs associated with the appeal.

Mr Latker

I responded to your Right to Know request by email on June 29th - the day after I received your request. Your email on the Right to Know request form was pristine917@gmail.com.I see that this email today is coming from pristine1917@gmail.com

Please advise and I will re-email the letter to you.

Thank you,
Linda Rickens Schellhammer

Dear Ms Rickens:

I am sorry, but for whatever reason neither Andrae nor I received an email. I've checked my SPAM box, and I received no acknowledgement of my voicemail.

There's no harm done ... such things happen. Please attach the response to this thread and I am sure to receive it. Your assistant mentioned a 30-day extension, to which we have no objection.

Mr Latker,

Here is the letter that I sent via email to the address provided on your Right to Know Form. I am hoping to have your information within the next few weeks.

Thank you and have a nice weekend,

Linda Rickens Schellhammer

Your response is perfectly in order, thank you, and I'm relieved that it was created within the five-day period. Not every government agency from which we seek records is compliant.

Should you believe that the final records provision will take longer than 30 calendar days, please be sure to contact us in advance of the deadline. We're aware of the time costs involved and appreciate your efforts. As long as there is a good-faith search for responsive records afoot, we are happy to be flexible.

Regards,
Richard Latker
